

Fork length is the most common measurement used. At a minimum, collect and record fork length to the nearest tenth of a cm or eighth of an inch.

To take length measurements, use calipers or tape measure.

If using a tape measure, place measure on flat surface and lay fish on tape measure to determine length. DO NOT lay tape measure on or over fish determine length.